Happy Birthday America

We had a great time celebrating with each other on this special day.

Celebrating America

Root Beer Floats hit the spot!

Singing some songs together and with some of our own fireworks made this event special.

Barn Day Fun

Lavonne enjoyed learning about all the different types of barns across the United States, some that don't even exist anymore.

Everyone enjoyed the farm snacks and lemonade.

National Ice Cream Cone Day!

National Ice Cream Cone Day brought several residents together to enjoy some ice cream and flavored waffle cones. Jim was enjoying his chocolate cone. George and his son were enjoying the mint ice cream.

Dick graduated from high school in 1953, then served in the military for two years in Korea. After the service he returned to Iowa and went to Simpson College in Indianola, Iowa, where he graduated with a degree in business administration in 1960. While in college he met his wife, Corrine Nast. They were married on July 26, 1958, in Chicago at the Lutheran church.
